

BURSUM STORE STANDS TO MAKE SOME $100,000 OUT OF BURSUM MCGOLLON ROAD

If Completed For Quarter Million Dollars, Highway Started Under Bill Introduced by Manager Abeyta of Bursum Store, at Present Contract Rate, Would Furnish Fortune in Business For Rio Grande Supply Company, of Which H. O. Bursum Is President

STORE SO FAR RECEIVES OVER $10,000 OUT OF $27,000 SPENT ON PROJECT

Bursum Henchmen and Political Associates in Charge of Work, Paid Whether Dirt Flies or Not; Checks For Supplies Come Into Bursum Emporium With Regularity; Jobs for Everybody When Election Approaches, Time-Honored Bursum Road-Building Method, Exemplified in County Thirty Years Ago

H. O. Bursum, Republican candidate for governor of New Mexico, the Perpetual Promiser, is promising everybody a road in this campaign.

Everywhere he goes Mr. Bursum promises the people to build them roads; roads everywhere; roads enough to occupy two-thirds of the total area of the state. Mr. Bursum has also seen fit to make attacks upon the splendid administration of public highways under the McDonald Democratic regime.

In view of his lavish promises and his criticism of the present management of the state road building campaign, the road building record of H. O. Bursum will be of particular interest to the voters just at this time.

At the last session of Mr. Bursum's legislature Mr. Bursum's county representative, Abrian Abeyta, manager of Mr. Bursum's store at Socorro, introduced a bill providing for building a road from Socorro, via Magdalena, to Mogollon, the county to levy 2 mills in 1915 and 1916 to provide funds.

Up to date seven miles of this road has been built at a cost of $27,145.24. Of this, some forty percent, $10,408.22, has been spent at Mr. Bursum's store, the Rio Grande Supply Company, at Socorro.

For 70 miles the proposed route of the road is through mountainous country, and the construction cost per mile would be heavy. At the rate of expenditure so far, the 63 remaining miles of heavy construction would cost approximately $245,000—of which amount some $100,000 would go into the Bursum store. Though work on the road has been suspended since last December, salaries have been going on and checks for supplies have been going to Mr. Bursum's store. The latter has a contract to furnish supplies. The men in charge of the work have been political associates of Mr. Bursum.

Extraordinary numbers of constantly changing workmen have been employed, to give as many men as possible a share in the pay. The road, if completed, will be impassable for four months of the year. If Mr. Bursum should control the next legislature isn't it reasonable to suppose he will seek legislative authority to spend public money on this project at the rate of one-third on the road and the other two-thirds for business for Mr. Bursum's store and for his political friends?

This is the Bursum method of road building.

This has been the Bursum method of road building for nearly thirty years. In the early nineties he was building a road from San Antonio to Mogollon, employing large numbers of men just before election.

Is this the kind of a road-builder the voters want as governor, to direct the work of highway improvement in the state?

Details of Bursum Road-Building
The supervisor of Mr. Bursum's Socorro-Mogollon road is Jose S. Baca, chairman of Mr. Bursum's board of county commissioners.

The foreman of construction is E. H. Sweet, who as county clerk of Socorro county was investigated by Assistant Traveling Auditor T. J. Guilfoill, who charged irregularities. Sweet, escaped trial through a technicality of the statutes.

Warrants paid out by Supervisor Baca show Sweet has been drawing $100 per month and expenses. Sweet has drawn $1,009.80, of which amount $632.50 was paid him since January 1, 1915, as his salary and expenses for the first six months, although during that time not a cent was spent for labor, no work was done and he had no one to be foreman over. Sweet has received $1,500 as salary, the remainder for expenses. He was thus employed for 15 months; and started drawing his pay when he was appointed in April, 1915, although the law as passed lacked the emergency clause and did not take effect until June 6, 1915. No work was done until July, but Sweet received his salary just the same.

Supervisor Baca paid himself for expenses $450, some of which was for a trip to Santa Fe in July, 1915.

Leandro Baca, another Bursum county commissioner, removed as sheriff of Socorro county in 1906 or Governor Hughesman for alleged irregularities, received $375.00 in monthly lump sums of $50 as a beneficiary of the Bursum road building law.

A firm called Gonzalez & Baca,

The People Have Been Patient Long Enough With Bursum; Plays Baby Act Again

H. O. Bursum, Republican candidate for governor, stingingly repudiated by the voters of New Mexico in the first state election:

H. O. Bursum, who is making a last desperate effort to ram his record down the throats of the decent voters of New Mexico and get himself and his rotten Republican ring into power in this state:

H. O. Bursum, "taxpayer," wild animal bounty celebrity, removed penitentiary superintendent, stepfather of the Hawkins bill, the builder of the Mogollon road, and for two decades the handy man and tool of the Republican organization, is now following the example of Frank Hubbell and playing the baby act.

It is announced that Mr. Bursum will sue the Morning Journal of Albuquerque for $50,000 damages for "libel."

Now we have the two leading Republican candidates frantically appealing to the libel law to prevent the exposure of their records.

Isn't it a spectacle for the voters of this state?

DO THE VOTERS OF NEW MEXICO WANT A SENATOR AND GOVERNOR WHOSE RECORDS ARE LIBELOUS?

DO THEY WANT A GOVERNOR AND A SENATOR WHOSE ONLY HOPE OF ELECTION LIES IN THROTTLING THE PRESS?

"I HAVE BEEN PATIENT LONG ENOUGH," Mr. Bursum is quoted as saying.

WE TELL MR. BURSUM THAT THE VOTERS OF THIS STATE HAVE BEEN PATIENT LONG ENOUGH.

They have been patient long enough with the attempts of Mr. Bursum and his ilk to tighten their grasp on the government of this state. They have been patient long enough with the dishonesty and rottenness of Republican legislatures; with the incompetency and crookedness of gang Republican office holders; have had enough of penitentiary superintendents and county treasurers who have to be removed from office.

The voters of New Mexico have been patient long enough with Mr. Bursum and his Hawkins bills. They have been patient long enough with the lawlessness of Republican legislative majorities such as told the people to be damned at the last session.

Four years ago they kicked Mr. Bursum and his record into the discard. Four years ago they spurned Mr. Bursum and his corrupt political organization; four years ago they told Mr. Bursum what they thought of him and his official record, and his bossism and his lobbying.

Now this man has the unparalleled insolence to come back and flaunt himself and his record in the faces of the voters; who gave him his most humiliating and scathing repudiation four years ago.

The people of New Mexico have been patient long enough with Mr. Bursum. They are going to finish up the job on November 7, despite all the libel suits that the Penitentiary Superintendent and the Guardian of the Sacred School fund can bring in the effort to cover up their past careers.

being in sums of less than $20 except in case of a few faithful Republicans from Beaudino, a village near Socorro.

Road Practically Abandoned
It appears that the Socorro-Mogollon road has been practically abandoned for the present. The supervisor in his report to the county commissioners for the quarter ending December 31, 1915, says that because of the severe winter work had to be abandoned December 1, and would not be resumed until April or May of 1916.

It has not been resumed. Not a pick has been struck in the ground since December 1, nor a spadeful of dirt moved. Meanwhile Sweet has been drawing his pay and the Bursum store has received checks for supplies.

Nearly $250,000 to Finish
The balance remaining in the fund created for the road is a trifle over $200, enough to pay Sweet's salary for another three months. The total spent on the nearly completed seven miles is $27,145.24, or at the rate of $3,877.89 per mile. At this rate to finish the remaining 63 miles of heavy construction it will cost $244,307.

Towards this amount the tax levy for 1915 will raise about $25,000, but $10,000 of this has already been borrowed and spent.

Impassable Four Months
After it is finished it is estimated the road will be impassable for four months in the year. At the "X" ranch the snow is so deep in winter that wagons cannot get through. The mountains west of this ranch are higher and the snow deeper in winter.

The Same Old Bursum
Old timers in Socorro county say Bursum displayed the same road building genius back in the nineties. At that time Sheriff H. O. Bursum conceived the idea of a road to Mogollon from San Antonio, then his own precinct. He got $750 from the commissioners. It is said, declaring he could get additional outside help. He took some laborers out just before election and had them scratch the ground west of the "X" ranch. They then went back to vote. At the next election he repeated the performance. When the Bataan act was passed early in 1897, it provided that county commissioners could fund any outstanding indebtedness by authorizing an issue of bonds before August 2 of that year. The Democratic county commissioners turned Mr. Bursum down when he sought under the act to have the expenditures on the Mogollon road funded. Later one of the commissioners went east and Bursum took advantage of his absence to persuade the remaining two to issue the bonds; but the time to issue the bonds had expired. The two county commissioners were warned that if they attempted to violate the law they would be prosecuted. As a result Bursum did not get his bonds until after a Republican board went into office at the next election. As soon as they took office they voted to issue $4,100 in bonds to fund the alleged floating indebtedness of expenditures on the Mogollon road. Although illegally issued these bonds are still outstanding.

At that time a board of viewers, it is said, went out in a wagon; driven for some distance in the wagon with difficulty; were forced to abandon the wagon and went ahead horseback; and finally had to finish the trip on foot, so they reported. Their report was later expunged from the files, it is said, and a less harsh one substituted.

To Hubbell and Otero Ranches
There are no towns on the proposed route of the road between Magdalena and Mogollon, but it passes through the "V" ranch of Frank A. Hubbell, Republican candidate for U. S. senator, and the "N-Bar" ranch of Ed Otero, one of Bursum's most enthusiastic supporters.

Mr. Bursum's methods of road building have not changed in the past 20 years.

He is the same old Bursum. He is still promising roads. Do you want to put the highway administration of New Mexico in the hands of a man who will build roads to supply jobs for Bursum's politicians, and business for Bursum's store?

Shifty Mr. Bursum Makes

(Continued from Page 1)

GOING TO BE UNFRIENDLY ON THE "EVE OF ELECTION"

Mr. Bursum falsely says the money spent on the road is being used to "promote and advance Democratic chances of success."

DOES MR. BURSUM WANT FORTY PERCENT OF IT SPENT FOR SUPPLIES AT MR. BURSUM'S STORE?

Is Mr. Bursum sore because none of it is going to E. H. Sweet, or Leandro Baca, or Jose S. Baca, or W. D. Crabtree, or large numbers of good Republican laborers of Socorro county?

Is Mr. Bursum sore because none of it is being transferred to the wild animal bounty fund to pay Mr. Bursum's Preferred Claims for Wild Animal Bounties?

We advise Mr. Bursum that he is on a dangerous subject when he intimates that public funds, whether or not their present ownership is disputed, and whether or not they are earning interest, are being used through "friendly banks" to advance the chances of success of any political party.

How Mr. Tax-Reformer Bursum Pays His Taxes

H. O. Bursum, Republican candidate for governor, declares himself to be the Friend of the People and the Champion of the Taxpayers. H. O. Bursum, sponsor for the unworkable Bursum tax law, and whose influence helped to defeat the beneficent Clark tax law, is still promising taxation reform.

Reform should always begin at home.

Mr. Bursum's own record as a taxpayer will be of interest to the taxpayers to whom he has been promising taxation reform.

An examination of the records in Socorro county, where Tax Reformer Bursum is supposed to pay his taxes, showed on September 7, 1916, that:

Taxes amounting to $5,172.77 had been assessed against Mr. Bursum personally since 1906, and almost the entire amount remained unpaid.

Of all taxes assessed against Mr. Bursum personally since 1906 he had paid only $88.26.

He had personally paid only $88.26 in taxes since 1906. Bursum's company had paid only $950.95 in taxes all told.

No sales of Bursum tax certificates had been made except by Max Montoya, Democratic county treasurer, since he took office in 1912. A Democratic district attorney found that the sale of Bursum property for taxes would be difficult, owing to the vagueness with which it is described on the rolls.

THE FIGURES FOR TEN YEARS

On September 7, 1916, the Socorro county tax rolls showed Mr. Bursum's tax-paying record for the past ten years as follows:

Year 1905—Name could not be found on rolls; might be assessed.

Year 1906—Same.

Year 1907—Taxes to the amount of $723.01 assessed in Precinct 1 due and unpaid on the roll.

Year 1908—Taxes to the amount of $715.18 assessed in Precinct 1 due and unpaid on the roll.

Year 1909—Taxes to the amount of $742.37 assessed in Precinct 1 due and unpaid on the roll.

Year 1910—Taxes to the amount of $686.43 assessed in Precinct 1 due and unpaid on the roll.

Year 1911—Taxes to the amount of $651.57 assessed in Precinct 1 due and unpaid on the roll, and sold to county.

Year 1912—Taxes to the amount of $569.09 assessed in Precinct 1 due and unpaid on the rolls and sold to county October 15, 1915.

Year 1913—Taxes to the amount of $904.67 assessed in Precinct 1 due and unpaid on the roll and sold to county October 15, 1915.

Year 1914—Taxes to amount of $88.26 assessed in Precinct 1, paid. Taxes assessed against Bursum's company in district 19, amounting to $497, paid.

Year 1915—Taxes assessed in the amount of $93.19 in Precinct 1 due and unpaid on the roll. Taxes found assessed against Bursum's company in District 52, in the amount of $907.00, of which $453.95 was paid on the roll.

ON SEPTEMBER 7, 1916, TAX REFORMER H. O. BURSUM HAD PAID $88.26 OF A TOTAL OF OVER $5,000 PERSONAL TAXES DUE DURING TEN YEARS.

That was all the taxes he had paid personally in ten years. Reform begins at home—and reformers must come before the people with clean hands.

What do the voters of New Mexico think of a Taxation Reformer who paid practically none of his personal taxes for ten years?

Do the voters of New Mexico want a man for governor who doesn't pay his taxes in New Mexico?

Cureno, S. S. Callach, Montoya; Arthur Goldenberg, Tucuman; K. A. Strand, Hanover, W. G. Sears, Des Moines; J. C. Humbolt, Hurley; R. B. Cutler, Hurley, W. E. Jacobs, Silver City; O. Denobis, Tucuman; J. H. Casper, San Samer, H. S. Muecke, Spring; H. E. Walker, Silver City; A. L. Zinn, Tucuman; E. B. Studley, Tucuman; Prager

Miller, Roswell; O. B. Bunterwood, Clayton; Hugh V. Fall, Hurley, and S. A. Barneo, Tucuman.

F. B. Smith, formerly of Leavitt worth, but now a resident of Baton Rouge, but now residing in Albuquerque, were taken in by affiliation. There were 57 candidates initiated into the Order of the Mystic Shrine in Las Vegas, according to State School Superintendent Alvan N. White who returned this morning to this city. A banquet and a dance, given by the party of the order, were features of the evening entertainment at the Castaneda hotel.

Several Santa Feans are in Las Vegas attending the 37th annual communication of the Most Worshipful Lodge of the A. F. & A. M. of New Mexico. Mr. Justice R. H. Hanna is down for an address at the banquet to be given at the Castaneda hotel tomorrow night. Other speakers are A. S. Pratt, James H. Wroth, Alvaro B. McMillen and George H. Kinkel.

Another One That Doesn't Need the Money

(Lakewood Progress.)

Much has been written and said, pro and con, concerning the libelous matter sent out by the Republican campaign committee to the press of the state asking that it be kept in the regular advertising rates. Many of the papers of the state and we are actually ashamed to say it, some papers right here in the Pecos valley that claim to be Democratic, exponents of the principle of "government of, for and by the people," are running the "dope," as well as other of the "Republican" campaign falsifications. The place is that, it is "legitimate" advertising, and that it does not show that they are supporting the men or ticket in whose favor it is published. You may call it by that name if you wish, but we have one that is better.

The Progress is a Democratic paper, and there is not enough money in the Republican bank fund, or any party fund for that matter, to buy advertising space in this paper if we do not believe that it is right. We may be starved out, but if such be the case we will have a clear conscience of having done what we believe to be right.

The Santa Fe New Mexican, a paper to whom our hat is off, is receiving lots of free advertising because it would not let the love of money rule its advertising columns. Read the explanation of its stand and the view it takes of political advertising.

CROWD AT RATON

Despite a heavy downpour of rain in Raton last night, the municipal opera house there was packed with people to hear A. A. Jones, Arizona Lacerio, W. B. Walton, George A. Davidson and Harry L. Patton, Democratic candidates. The speakers were given a grand reception, and were repeatedly applauded throughout the evening.

After the meeting in Raton a second meeting was held in East Raton.

The Democrats visited Cimarron today, and will speak in Dawn tonight.

Statement of the ownership, management, circulation, etc., required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912, of El Nuevo Mexicano, published weekly at Santa Fe, New Mexico, for October 1, 1916.

State of New Mexico, County of Santa Fe.—I, Before me, a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid, appeared Ralph M. Henderson, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the General Manager of El Nuevo Mexicano, and that the following is to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation), etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations printed on the reverse of this form: to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are: Publisher, New Mexico Printing Company, Santa Fe, N. M.; Editor, E. Dana Johnson, Santa Fe, N. M.; Managing Editor, E. Dana Johnson, Santa Fe, N. M.; Business Manager, Ralph M. Henderson, Santa Fe, N. M. 2. That the owners are: (Give names and addresses of individual owners, or, if a corporation, give the name and the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of stock.) New Mexico Printing Co., Santa Fe, N. M.; E. Dana Johnson, Santa Fe, N. M.; Ralph M. Henderson, Santa Fe, N. M. 3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 percent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: E. Dana Johnson, Santa Fe, N. M.; E. Dana Johnson, Santa Fe, N. M.; E. Dana Johnson, Santa Fe, N. M. 4. That the two paragraphs next above giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing full and complete statements of the full names and addresses of all persons owning or holding 1 percent or more of the total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in case where the stockholders or security holders appear upon the books of the company as trustees, or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom